KIDNAPPING ASSESSMENT RATING BREAKDOWN

EXTREME

The threat of abduction/piracy is pervasive and endemic in the majority of the country or territory. Kidnappers typically target both locals and foreigners.

HIGH

The threat of abduction/piracy is pervasive and endemic, but may be elevated in specific areas or at specific times. Kidnappers typically target both locals and foreigners.

MEDIUM

The threat of kidnapping is episodic, and while abductors typically target locals, foreigners remain at risk.

LOW

The threat of abduction, if present, generally exists in specific areas and within the local population, with limited impact on travelers or businesses.

MINIMAL

The threat of abduction is negligible.

NOT ASSESSED

The location depicted has insufficient data available for a rating.
